

Theuns and Johan reign over photo competition

Theuns Botha of the Eastern Cape Region is the winner of this year's BKB photo competition, while Johan Norval of the Central Region took the winning photo of the year.

Theuns took three first prizes, four second prizes and two third prizes, gaining the most points and walked away with the title of Photographer of the Year.

Johan scored four first prizes and one third prize. His photo of a strutting horse was named the Photo of the Year.

The other winners were Charl van Rooyen of the Central Region with one first prize, one second prize and one third prize, Lucille Botha of the Western Cape Region with one second prize and two third prizes and Heleen Scholtz of the Central region with one second prize and one third prize.

The winners of the BKB photo competition.

From left - Eddie Prinsloo, Director BKB, Herman Hugo, General Manager BKB Livestock and Properties, Johan Norval of the Central Region who took the winning photograph, Ilana Joubert, BKB Public Relations Officer, Photographer of the Year Theuns Botha of the Eastern Cape Region and Hein Vollgraaff, BKB Western Cape Manager: Livestock and Properties.