

The Dairy Mail* wins sought after award

South Africa's leading monthly publication for the dairy industry, The Dairy Mail, received no less than three awards at the 2008 Pica awards for excellence in magazine publishing. The Dairy Mail, published by Agri Connect, was once again named the best resource based industry magazine in the business to business sector and also won the Watling trophy for business to business magazine of the year. The cherry on top was Willemien von Solms, editor of The Dairy Mail, being named editor of the year in the business to business section for the second consecutive year.

Hearty congratulations from Agricultural Writers SA!
